

Speciality code and name	035.04 Philology. 035.04 Philology. Germanic Languages and Literatures (including Translation).
Specialization	Language and Literature (English, German/French)
Qualification level	First (bachelor)
Professional competencies and skills	A Bachelor in Philology should know: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- the basic principles and concepts in the field of theory and history of a master language, literature, theory of communications, philological analysis and text interpretation, the history, current state and prospects of the development of Philology;</li> <li>- the methods of language and literary facts collection and analysis, using traditional procedures and modern information technology;</li> <li>- how to master language in its literary form;</li> <li>- methods and techniques of different types of oral and written communication by means of a master language.</li> </ul> A Bachelor in Philology should be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- ensure written and oral communication in different spheres of economy, science and culture;</li> <li>- translate competently from English into other languages including Ukrainian;</li> <li>- understand the features of the language situation in the process of intercultural communication; implement various types of information processing (report, abstracting, annotation, commentary, summary) in the process of communicative activity;</li> <li>- use professional skills to enhance general and philological culture of citizens of different age categories;</li> <li>- apply elocution techniques while speaking in public, readings and lectures (including via radio and television);</li> <li>- perform analysis, systematization and prediction of some literary-language phenomena.</li> </ul>
Mode of studies	Full-time, part-time (admission requirements):
Duration of studies	3 years and 10 months
Educational background requirements	Persons who have gained Senior Secondary Certificate of Secondary Education and have Certificates of the Ukrainian Center for Educational Quality Assessment in competitive subjects stipulated by the Admission Regulations of the National University of Ostroh Academy.
Scope and structure of the degree program	240 credits, including: compulsory subjects: 158 credits; selective subjects: 66 credits; teaching practice: 4 credits; translation practice: 4 credits; course paper: 3 credits; qualification paper: 5 credits.
Compulsory subjects:          English Language, Practical Phonetics, Practical Grammar, German/French Language, World Literature and Introduction to Literary Studies, Introduction to Linguistics, Latin Language, Computer Technologies of Text Editing, Interpreting, Theory and Practice of Translation, General Theoretical Course in the Second Foreign Language, Foreign Language Teaching Methodology, Stylistics, Lexicology, Writing for Academic Purposes, English Literature, History of Ukraine, History of the Ukrainian Culture and Ostroh Academy, Philosophy, Modern Ukrainian Literary Language.
Selective subjects:          Analytical Reading, Lexical Management, French/German/Spanish/Italian/Polish Language, Political and Legal Studies, Basics of the Political and Legal Discourse, Scientific Research Basics, Scientific Activities Management, Country Studies Through Language, Linguistic Aspects of the English-Speaking Countries, History of the English Language, Basics of the Germanic Studies, Practical Aspects of Translation and Localization, Computer Assisted Translation, Theoretical Phonetics, Phonetical Organization of the English Language, Applied Linguistics, Theoretical Grammar, Theory of Verbal Communication, Modern Strategies of Communication, Modern Ukrainian Literary Language: Stylistics, Basics of Business Etiquette, Basics of Psychology and Pedagogy, History of Musical and Fine

Arts, Science of Logic, Basics of Information and Computer Science.
Teaching practice
Translation practice
Qualification paper