Cooperation Agreement in the field of education, science and research

I.

The contracting parties claim that by signing this agreement they are willing to cooperate in the field of education, research and science.

II.

The subject of this contract is an agreement of the contracting parties regulating relations in academic cooperation in the field of:

- a) Students' mobilities and exchanges,
- b) Teachers' mobilities and exchanges,
- c) Staff mobilities and exchanges,
- d) Joint scientific research,
- e) Joint participation in international programs,
- f) Development and implementation of potential double degree programs.

III.

In the field of science, the contracting parties are ready to cooperate in mutual projects, in organisation and co-organisation of conferences. The contracting parties are also ready to participate in publishing professional journals including the participation in editorial councils and publishing.

If the extent of the cooperation in individual fields exceeds the frame of this agreement, i.e. if the realization of some of the mutual projects requires material or financial resources, such a situation will be solved ad hoc in a special contract.

IV.

The principles of the cooperation according to this agreement are based on the fact that each contracting party as a delegating institution covers the costs concerning the delegation of its students, teachers and employees in compliance with the internal regulation of the delegating institution modifying the particular area.

The receiving institution always verifies if a student, a teacher or an employee is really the person concerned by the provisions of this agreement, i.e. if he/she was really sent (for purpose of an internship, educational stay, etc.) by the delegating institution.

The guest-students, teachers and research workers cover the costs connected with the boarding, accommodation, transport, healthcare, etc. during their stay (regulated by this agreement) at the receiving institution.

Both contracting parties as receiving institutions are obliged to create according to their means optimal conditions for ensuring of the accommodation and to provide help concerning accommodation or other services.

V.

The receiving institution will enable to the delegated persons in accordance with this agreement to participate in educational process or research and will provide free access to the library services, archives, laboratories and to the net services accordingly.

This cooperation is governed by the principle of reciprocity.

VI.

This agreement is concluded for an indefinite period of time. If this agreement should be terminated the written notice is to be given six months in advance. The six months' notice period commences by the first day of the following month after the delivery of the written notice. However, the notice period cannot terminate before the end of the stay or the internship regulated by this agreement.

VII.

This agreement does not regulate the relations between the individuals delegated according to this agreement and a contracting party but regulates solely the relations between the delegating and the receiving institutions. The relations between the students, employees, research workers and their delegating institutions shall be regulated by the internal regulation of the delegating institution. However, the delegated persons are obliged to respect the rules of the receiving institution – timetables, working hours, etc.

VIII.

The relations regulated by this agreement are in accordance with the legal order of Ukraine and the Republic of Lithuania.

This agreement is made in English and Ukrainian languages, in two equally authentic counterparts. Each contracting party shall receive one signed counterpart in the above-mentioned languages. In case of dispute between the parties, the agreement in the English language shall prevail. It is the English language, which shall be used as formal language for purpose of the contractual relation.
